OBITUARY—MARY SEBERING.

Miss Mary Sebering was born on a farm near Greenville, Ohio, August 22nd, 1853, and departed this life September 17th, 1926, at the age of 73 years and 27 days.

She became a member of the Baptist church when she was a young woman, and all those years she remained faithful to her God and to her church, and died in the triumphs of a living faith until she exchanged time for eternity.

She spent all of her life in and around Greenville, where she was well known. Here she gave herself to her chosen profession, that of a seamstress.

She was a dependable woman and there were no better than she was. She did not live for self, but she lived for others as well. Here can be said what a great man once said, "This that this woman hath done shall be spoken of her as a memorial to all generations, she built her own character and erected her own monument."

She was highly esteemed by all that knew her, and those who were her best friends speak in highest terms of her. May her good life and sacrifices encourage her loved ones to a like service and a like devotion.

She leaves to mourn her loss, a devoted sister, Mrs. Adam Briney, of 722 Central Avenue, Greenville, O., eight nephews and four nieces, and many friends.

Her funeral was held from the home of her sister, Mrs. Adam Briney, 722 Central Avenue, Greenville, Sunday afternoon, September 19th, 1926, at 2 o'clock. Burial was made in the Abbottsville cemetery, Rev. J. A. Pantle in charge.

A very lively crowd, to the number of fifty-three, gathered at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Noah Coning at their country home on the Ansonia pike for the Carney reunion. At the noon hour they all drove to the City Park, where the tables were already beautifully laid. Those present were: Rev. 050 In Memorium

In Memory of Betty Mounce who passed away May 24, 1982
There isn't a day that passes that you aren't in thought
Even though the years have past since you left us, we haven't forgot
The way you put each grandchild on your knee
The way you held them, the same as you held your children so tenderly
Sitting out on the porch swing, singing "Amazing Grace"
Now you're singing it with the Lord, in a better place
Should wishing you back with us be a sin
But could we stand the pain of losing you again
We wonder if you can feel all the love for you we still hold in our hearts
Someday we'll all meet up yonder and nothing will ever again keep us apart.
To Grandma, by her granddaughter, Sherry Corder
Sadly missed and loved by her family.

majority, and he filled that office one term. He was a member of the city council of Greenville six years, the school board of that place four years and is now serving his sixth year as a member of the County Agricultural Society, having been re-elected for a two-years term in 1899. In 1890 he took the census in the west precinct of Greenville township, and all of his official duties have been most faithfully and satisfactorily performed. For twenty-eight years he has been a member of Greenville Lodge, No. 195, I. O. O. F., and he also belongs to Jobes Post, No. 157, G. A. R. Mrs. Eidson is a member of Rebekah's Bee Hive Lodge, No. 266, of Greenville. She was the first noble grand of the lodge and delivered the noble grand's charge the first five years of the lodge's existence, since which time she has delivered the past grand's charge. She served as a special deputy of the grand master of Ohio for five years, has been sent as delegate to the state assembly nine years and served as state chaplain one year. In all the public entertainments of the lodge she has always been appointed to deliver the addresses of the Rebekah branch of the order. Mrs. Eidson is a member of Jobes Post Corps, No. 223, W. R. C., and is the assistant patriotic instructor. In religion she is one of the active and prominent members of the Universalist church of Greenville, and Mr. Eidson leans toward the doctrines enunciated by that denomination. He is one of Darke county's representative business men and is widely and favorably known.

WILLIAM ALLEN LIVINGSTON.

This well-known farmer and stock raiser of Wabash township, Darke county, Ohio, was born in Preble county, Ohio, March 16, 1856, and is a son of John Livingston, a retired farmer living near Greenville, who was born in West Virginia. The paternal grandfather, John Livingston, Sr., was a native of Virginia and a butcher by trade. He married and later emigrated to Preble county, Ohio, where both he and his wife died and were buried, though the grandmother survived her husband several years. They had eight children, five sons and three daughters, all of whom are still living, and with the exception of one son all have families.

Throughout his active business life the father of our subject followed farming but now, at the age of seventy years, he is living retired near Greenville. About 1850 he married Ann Rebecca Vance, a native of Preble county and a daughter of Michael and Ann Rebecca (King) Vance, both deceased. Mrs. Livingston died on Christmas day, 1898. By this union were born the following children: John W., who died in infancy; Elly, the wife of David Heckman; William A., our subject; Isabelle, who died at the age of fifteen years; Martha Jane, the wife of Dase Stults and a resident of Piqua; Lucy Ann, at home with her father; Mary Margaret, the wife of Irvin Earsman; and Charles Elmer, who lives near Greenville.

Our subject was reared to farm life and acquired his education in the district schools. On the 23d of October, 1881, he led to the marriage altar Miss Rebecca Gipe, of Darke county, and to them were born seven children: Mary Jane, who died at the age of one year; Gracie, John, Rosa, Murley, Clara and Emma A., the last named aged two years, all at home.

In 1898 Mr. Livingston rented Uriah Medford's farm in Wabash township, a place of one hundred and fifty-nine acres, which he is now successfully operating. He is engaged in mixed farming, raising mostly corn and wheat, and keeps all kinds of stock, horses, cattle, sheep and hogs. He is a thorough, up-to-date farmer and hard worker, and has made sometimes as much as fifteen hundred dollars per year. Politically he is identified with the Republican party, and religiously is an earnest member of All Saint's church.

THOMAS BAKER.

This well-known and prosperous farmer of Harrison township has an excellent and finely improved farm in the southwest corner of Darke county, the same being only one-half mile from his birthplace, which was in Preble county, where he was ushered into the world on the 30th of November, 1832. His father, Thomas Baker, Sr., was a native of the state of New Jersey, where he was born November 19, 1795, and died in Preble county, Ohio, in 1879, on the place where the subject of this sketch was born. The great-grandfather of our subject also bore the name of Thomas and he was born in the Passaic river valley of New Jersey in 1762, his death occurring near Winchester, Indiana, about 1841. The latter's father, Thomas Baker, of Long Island, New York, was a man of prominence in his day. The original ancestor, who bore the same Christian name, was an officer in the English army and at one time owned all of Long Island. His sword was owned by the grandfather of our subject and he had it manufactured into butcher knives while he was living in Butler county, Ohio, where he settled in 1801. He married Lydia Hand, of New Jersey, where they were married, and they reared five sons and four daughters. One daughter, Sarah, the first born, joined the organization of the Shakers before she was of legal age, so her parents brought her home, but she eventually returned to the Shakers, with whom she passed her life, attaining the great age of ninety-one years. The youngest child, Abner, lived to be eighty-eight.

The mother of our subject bore the maiden name of Elizabeth Wesley and she was born in Pennsylvania in 1806, John Wesley, the father of Methodism, having been her granduncle. Our subject is one of twelve children, and of this number four sons and six daughters were reared to maturity and all except one were married. Those living at the present time are: Ann, wife of Henry Hutton, of New Paris, Preble county; Martha, wife of Michael Reid, of the same locality; Thomas, the immediate subject of this review; Elizabeth, widow of David Roberts, resides near Hollansburg, this county; Mary Ann, widow of John Benson, resides near New Paris, Preble county. The mother of this large family of children died at the age of about sixty-four years, and the father subsequently consummated a second marriage, his death occurring in the spring of 1879, at the age of eighty-four years. He was an extensive and opulent farmer, owning about six hundred acres of land in this section of the state and in Indiana.

The subject of this sketch is the owner of two hundred and seventy acres in three farms, all of which he received from his father's estate, and other tracts are still owned by members of the family. Thomas never left the parental home, but on the 13th of December, 1855, he was united in marriage to Margaret Todd, of Preble county, who
